Fluid Expression: The Prints of Helen Frankenthaler

July 7–September 18, 2016

The poster for the exhibition 'Fluid Expression: The Prints of Helen Frankenthaler' features a vibrant orange background with abstract, colorful splatters. At the top, it reads 'The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art presents the'. The title 'Fluid Expression: The Prints of Helen Frankenthaler' is written in a large, white, serif font. Below the title is a collage of three abstract prints by Frankenthaler, showing various colors like red, yellow, and blue. To the right of these prints is a small black and white portrait of Helen Frankenthaler. At the bottom, the dates 'July 7–September 18, 2016' are displayed in a white, serif font.

An influential figure in American art of the late 1950s and early 1960s, Helen Frankenthaler was a leading abstract expressionist painter, sculptor and print-maker until her death in 2011. She was one of the early abstract expressionists and a pioneer in the development of color-field painting.

BESA: Albanian Muslim Rescuers During the Holocaust

Photographs by Norman Gershman

May 23–September 25, 2016

Besa is a code of honor deeply rooted in Albanian culture and incorporated in the faith of Albanian Muslims. It dictates a moral behavior so absolute that nonadherence brings shame and dishonor on oneself and one's family. This exhibition is showcase photographs in Albania and Kosovo, Muslims sheltered, at grave risk to themselves and their families, not only the Jews of their cities and villages, but thousands of Jews fleeing the Nazis from other European countries.

The exhibit comes from Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion Museum, New York, New York.

Volunteer Opportunities

Docents

A comprehensive training program prepares each docent to lead tours for both school groups and general audiences. Throughout the year, tours are scheduled at various times during the week and on Sundays, providing a flexible schedule for volunteers.

Docents take groups through exhibits related to the Holocaust, Jewish History and Culture, and the temporary art exhibits. Anyone wishing to become a docent should contact Docent Chairman Stan Shapiro, Executive Director Drew Diamond, or Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818. Those interested will be given an information manual regarding the Holocaust and Jewish History and Culture, and will need to be available to shadow docents leading tours and to attend the art exhibit orientations and monthly meetings of the Committee of Docents.

Admissions Desk Volunteers

Consider volunteering to welcome and direct visitors to the Museum, answer phones and visitor inquiries. In addition, admissions desk volunteers help process admission and merchandise sales and assist staff with special events. Volunteer shifts are normally three hours in length, and a variety of weekday or Sunday hours are available to volunteers, in rotation.

Volunteers perform numerous duties essential to the success of the Museum, helping avoid salary and labor costs often associated with day-to-day activities and exhibits installation. Training is provided to volunteers for areas throughout the Museum.

If you're interested in volunteering for the Museum with other dedicated, caring, enthusiastic, and friendly volunteers and staff, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818 or email volunteer@jewishmuseum.net.
