Commemorating the legacy of Mildred and Julius Sanditen, please join our honorees and patrons on Sunday, October 26, for the opening of the new Sanditen Gallery. Enjoy Leonard Nimoy's keynote address, via Skype, of his acclaimed portrait photography Secret Selves exhibition (opening details below).

Your participation makes possible ambitious educational and programming goals of your newly accredited Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art, while acknowledging several important milestones in its history. Let's celebrate!

The Many Faces of Jerusalem

Works from the Israel Quilters Association

October 3, 2014 - January 31, 2015

The Israel Quilters Association, in celebration of its 20th anniversary in 2012, extended an invitation to artists world-wide to attend the conference and exhibit their quilted entries. The textile exhibit, titled The Many Faces of Jerusalem, opened at Brigham Young University campus on the Mount of Olives, and is coming to the Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art in October 2014.

The Quilters chose Jerusalem for its international, multicultural character. The Capital of Israel, Jerusalem is holy to Jews, Christians and Muslims. Jerusalem residents today are a broad representation of ethnicity and religion, living together among its rich history. The exhibited quilts are the textiles of dream, hope and memory, resulting in a multicultural feast for the eyes.

LEONARD NIMOY

Secret Selves

October 26, 2014 - January 31, 2015

Fans of both fine art photography and Star Trek legend will be thrilled with this acclaimed photographic exhibition of Leonard Nimoy Secret Selves. Nimoy, an accomplished photographer, mastered his alternate identity as the famed Mr. Spock. Nurturing his artistic interest in hidden identities, volunteer subjects were invited in photographic sessions to reveal their secret selves, whether by costume, pose, or attitude. The resulting portraits are the Secret Selves exhibit.

Oklahoma Jewish Film Festival Makes Debut!

OCTOBER 19-23, 2014

The Oklahoma Jewish Film Festival is a partnership between Circle Cinema, Jewish Federation of Tulsa and The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art

The first ever Oklahoma Jewish Film Festival (OJFF) makes its debut Sunday, October 19-Thursday, October 23. Conceived as a partnership between Circle Cinema, the Jewish Federation of Tulsa, and The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art, the OJFF is a five-day celebration of Jewish Film.

"Our goal for the first ever Oklahoma Jewish Film Festival was to select quality films ranging from comedies to dramas to documentaries that would entertain and engage a broad audience," said Drew Diamond, Executive Director.

For a full list of film festival events, watch your mailing for the brochure or download one at www.jewishmuseum.net/OJFF

All viewings and events are at the Circle Cinema (10 S Lewis Ave). Tickets are $10 per film, with the exception of Return of the Violin which are $15 and include the reception immediately before the showing. Tickets are available at Circle Cinema or online at www.circlecinema.com; tickets will also be on sale at the door prior to each screening.

Tribute Recognitions

Tributes are a meaningful way to honor a special occasion or to remember loved ones. Donations to The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art provide for permanent and traveling exhibitions and educational programs. Focusing on the heritage, history and culture of the Jewish people,

The Miller helps deepen perception and understanding through art.

Tours

If you would like to book a docent-led tour or to check for an available date, please contact Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818 or email her at volunteer@jewishmuseum.net.

Volunteer Opportunities

Docents

A comprehensive training program prepares each docent to lead tours for both school groups and general audiences. Throughout the year, tours are scheduled at various times during the week and on Sundays, providing a flexible schedule for volunteers.

Docents take groups through exhibits related to the Holocaust, Jewish History and Culture, and the temporary art exhibits.

Anyone wishing to become a docent should contact Docent Chairman Stan Shapiro, Executive Director Drew Diamond, or Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818. Those interested will be given an information manual regarding the Holocaust and Jewish History and Culture, and will need to be available to shadow docents leading tours and to attend the art exhibit orientations with Dr. York, and monthly meetings of the Committee of Docents.

Front Desk Volunteers

Consider volunteering to welcome and direct visitors to the Museum, answer phones and visitor inquiries. In addition, front desk volunteers help process admission and merchandise sales and assist staff with special events. Front desk shifts are normally three hours in length, and a variety of weekday or Sunday hours are available to volunteers, in rotation.

Volunteers perform numerous duties essential to the success of the Museum, helping avoid salary and labor costs often associated with day-to-day activities and exhibit installation. Training is provided to volunteers for areas throughout the Museum.

If you're interested in volunteering for the Museum with other dedicated, caring, enthusiastic, and friendly volunteers and staff, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818 or email volunteer@jewishmuseum.net
