SAVE THE DATE! BUILDING BASH

The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art
Sunday, October 26

Please join us at The Miller in celebration of several important milestones. The festivities this year, under the leadership of Sallye Mann, Chair and Susan Fenster, Patron Chair, will honor Lori and Michael A. Cohen and Deana and Michael G. Maloney for their leadership and dedication to the Museum. The grand opening of the new Sanditen Gallery in memory of Mildred and Julius Sanditen will feature the exhibit Leonard Nimoy: Secret Selves.

Join Our Mailing List!

Your Patronage and participation is critical to the success of this event. We look forward to greeting you and your guests at our Building Bash. If you would like patron information or have any questions, please contact Melissa Schnur, Museum Development Director at 918.492.1818. Formal invitations will be mailed soon.

THEODORE FRIED:
Pivotal Moments In Twentieth Century Art

June 8 - September 7, 2014

EXTENDED THROUGH SEPTEMBER 11TH!

The Many Faces of Jerusalem
Works from the Israel Quilters Association

Coming October 2014

The Israel Quilters Association, in celebration of its 20th anniversary in 2012, extended an invitation to artists world-wide to attend the conference and exhibit their quilted entries. The textile exhibit, titled The Many Faces of Jerusalem, opened on the Brigham Young University campus on the Mount of Olives, and is coming to the Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art in October 2014.

The Quilters chose Jerusalem for its international, multicultural character. The Capital of Israel, Jerusalem is holy to Jews, Christians and Muslims. Jerusalem residents today are a broad representation of ethnicity and religion, living together among its rich history. The exhibited quilts are the textiles of dream, hope and memory, resulting in a multicultural feast for the eyes.

Fans of both fine art photography and Star Trek legend will be thrilled with this acclaimed photographic exhibition of Leonard Nimoy Secret Selves. Nimoy, an accomplished photographer, mastered his alternate identity as the famed Mr. Spock. Nurturing his artistic interest in hidden identities, volunteer subjects were invited in photographic sessions to reveal their secret selves, whether by costume, pose, or attitude. The resulting portraits are the Secret Selves exhibit.

Tours

If you would like to book a docent-led tour or to check for an available date, please contact Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818 or email her at volunteer@jewishmuseum.net.

Volunteer Opportunities

Docents

A comprehensive training program prepares each docent to lead tours for both school groups and general audiences. Throughout the year, tours are scheduled at various times during the week and on Sundays, providing a flexible schedule for volunteers.

Docents take groups through exhibits related to the Holocaust, Jewish History and Culture, and the temporary art exhibits.

Anyone wishing to become a docent should contact Docent Chairman Stan Shapiro, Executive Director Drew Diamond, or Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818. Those interested will be given an information manual regarding the Holocaust and Jewish History and Culture, and will need to be available to shadow docents leading tours and to attend the art exhibit orientations with Dr. York, and monthly meetings of the Committee of Docents.

Front Desk Volunteers

Consider volunteering to welcome and direct visitors to the Museum, answer phones and visitor inquiries. In addition, front desk volunteers help process admission and merchandise sales and assist staff with special events. Front desk shifts are normally three hours in length, and a variety of weekday or Sunday hours are available to volunteers, in rotation.

Volunteers perform numerous duties essential to the success of the Museum, helping avoid salary and labor costs often associated with day-to-day activities and exhibit installation. Training is provided to volunteers for areas throughout the Museum.

If you're interested in volunteering for the Museum with other dedicated, caring, enthusiastic, and friendly volunteers and staff, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818 or email volunteer@jewishmuseum.net
