JEW'S ROCK

Featuring photographs of music's Jewish icons by photojournalist Janet Macoska

MARCH 3 – JUNE 24

The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art is hosting an exhibit March 3-June 24, 2016 titled "Jews Rock" featuring photographs of Jewish icons in music through the lens of photojournalist Janet Macoska including Gene Simmons, Paul Stanley, Paul Simon, Bruce Springsteen and many more. In addition, the Museum will showcase a select group of Oklahoma artists with original pieces of artwork featuring Jewish rock artists. The Museum has provided ten artists with an unfinished guitar body and assigned them a Jewish musician to paint but the design is completely up to them. Their work will be displayed in our Museum for the entire exhibit.

Jewish Genealogical Society of Tulsa
Sunday, February 28, 2016
2:00 p.m.

Dan Room of the CSJCC

The next meeting of the Jewish Genealogical Society of Tulsa will be this coming Sunday, February 28 at 2:00 p.m. in the Dan Room of the CSJCC. Sherman Ray, the 94 year old Holocaust survivor (and still working tailor!) of not one but two concentration camps will be answering questions such as: What was Poland like for the Jews prior to the Nazi's coming to power? How did the Nazi's round up all the Jews in a town? How did the Polish people treat the Jews? What was it like on the trains to the camp? What did you do day after day in the camp? Did you have a feeling about being liberated in 1945? Tell us about being liberated and afterward? Also, any questions that you might have as well. Sherman does not do much public speaking any longer but has agreed to come and answer any questions that you might have. When the Nazi's invaded Poland on Sept 1, 1939 Sherman was 18 years old and remembers all of it! New members are always welcome!

Tenth Annual Purim Mask Invitational

Tribute Recognitions

Tributes are a meaningful way to honor a special tributes are a meaningful way to honor a special occasion or to remember loved ones. Donations to The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art provide for permanent and traveling exhibitions and educational programs. Focusing on the heritage, history and culture of the Jewish people, The Miller helps deepen perception and understanding through art.

If you would like to book a docent-led tour or check for an available date, please contact Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818

Volunteer Opportunities

Docents

A comprehensive training program prepares each docent to lead tours for both school groups and general audiences. Throughout the year, tours are scheduled at various times during the week and on Sundays, providing a flexible schedule for volunteers.

Docents take groups through exhibits related to the Holocaust, Jewish History and Culture, and the temporary art exhibits.

Anyone wishing to become a docent should contact Docent Chairman Stan Shapiro, Executive Director Drew Diamond, or Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818. Those interested will be given an information manual regarding the Holocaust and Jewish History and Culture, and will need to be available to shadow docents leading tours and to attend the art exhibit orientations and monthly meetings of the Committee of Docents.

Admissions Desk Volunteers

Consider volunteering to welcome and direct visitors to the Museum, answer phones and visitor inquiries. In addition, admissions desk volunteers help process admission and merchandise sales and assist staff with special events. Volunteer shifts are normally three hours in length, and a variety of weekday or Sunday hours are available to volunteers, in rotation.

Volunteers perform numerous duties essential to the success of the Museum, helping avoid salary and labor costs often associated with day-to-day activities and exhibits installation. Training is provided to volunteers for areas throughout the Museum.

If you're interested in volunteering for the Museum with other dedicated, caring, enthusiastic, and friendly volunteers and staff, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator Cathey Wilson at 918.492.1818
